

Weigent-Hogan Neighborhood Association

Subject: May General Membership Meeting

Item	Person Responsible	Action
Attendance	Barbara McPeak, Jessica Olson, Sara Sullivan, Philip Stanley, Kathy Sims, Andy Butch, Sue Bulk, Karen Acker, Janis Jolly, Kristie Neve, Linda Lee, Chuck Lee, Carla Pena, Anne Lee, Nick Dutton, Chuck Welch, Megan Muehlenbruch, Linda Fausak	Welcome and call to order at 6:30 by Chuck Welch (president)
Announcements	Chuck Welch: WHNA Capital Improvement Funds are in City 2018 budget; our planning process will start this winter. Karen Acker: Hillview Urban Ag plant sale is Sat 5/13, 10-3, greenhouses on WTC campus; YMCA Food Forest workshop Sat 5/13, 10-12 at the Y. Kathy Sims: WHNA Spring Into Summer event is Sun 5/21, Weigent Park, stay tuned for details Kristi Neve & Chuck Lee: Enviro Committee considering its own garden designation; not pursuing Wild Ones designation; and considering a project creating a model pollinator garden in WHNA	Representative from Enviro Committee please come to Exec Bd meeting on 5/15, 6:45, Java Vino to describe garden projects
Program: Gardens and Biodiversity	Chuck Lee: Environment Committee is focused on biodiversity for aesthetics, climate and health. Megan Muehlenbruch (County Biodiversity Coordinator): County encouraging residents to increase interactions with nature, including gardening: Megan gave away seed packets! Kristi Neve: provided handouts including invasive species identification guides, list of local nurseries and native plants catalog. Linda Fausak, French Creek Gardens: Described perennials that are favorites of bees, butterflies and hummingbirds	County Biodiversity website: NatureConnectionsLax.org Six perennials that attract pollinators and provide for all season bloom: Aster, Monarda, Milkweed, Joe Pye Weed, Phlox, Goldenrod See WHNA website for info presented in tonight's program
Next meetings	Exec Board: 5/15/17, 6:45, Java Vino General: 6/12/17, 6:30, UU, Topic: City Housing Programs

Monday, May 8, 2017

Adjourn

Motion by Linda Lee; Second by Kristi
Neve

Adjourn 7:38 pm