Review of April Meeting	All	We thought that working with Mayo is a good opportunity for development in the neighborhood. They are required to fund things in the areas where Mayo is developing. We will work with Parks to determine how Mayo can help us with some goals (e.g., lighting)
Next Meeting	May 9 th : Leah Miller	Leah will talk on sustainability. Bob will get the blurb to Travis and Sue by May 1 st .
Looking ahead	June: Explore LaCrosse July: All Things Water August: Neighborhood Night Out September: City Clerk/Election Issues	We thought summer fun in LaCrosse would be good at this time. Bob will contact Explore LaCrosse to firm up Water, sewer, storm water. Greg will contact Clean Water people at UWL for possible speaker Linda will check on using Hogan to see if we can use their area for gathering. ?? check with LPD to get put on their list??
Hogan Garden	Linda, Sue	The garden is going and has been tilled. Garden prep is set for April 30, 10 am - 1 pm. May 6 th 1-4 pm will be the first planting. Emails are going out to all who signed up for work.
Neighborhood Clean Up		So-so response.
Other Business	Greg	Greg updated us on the Historical Museum progress. The site choices have been narrowed to 3. They are aiming for a 2029 ribbon cutting. This will be a center for the area's history, nature, and culture. Peggy said it best as a confluence of waters and cultures.
